

'where the individual counts'

We currently have a vacancy for a

Teacher of Mathematics

to support pupils within the school in our Maths department, up to and including GCSE

The school is a non-selective, small independent school which offers opportunities to teach pupils of all abilities within a calm, purposeful and supportive setting.

Applications are welcome from both experienced teachers and those in their ECT year.

Visits to the School are advised prior to application and these may be arranged via Mrs Nightingale:

upperschool@kirkstonehouseschool.co.uk

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. If successful, an enhanced DBS check will be sought.
